There was no old business.

Under new business, City Attorney Trent Meltzer presented Resolution No. 2014-4 to the Board, whereby the Board approves transferring three properties to Habitat for Humanity of Shelby County, Inc. The three properties are located at 253 E. Mechanic St., 609 W. Franklin St., and 732 LaBelle Avenue. Mayor DeBaun wanted to announce that in last week's Chamber Chat Newsletter, there was a nice full page color ad for National Automotive's 45th anniversary. Collectively, Mr. Finkel, his father Maurice, and his brother Ken, have 138 years in the automotive after-market business. Mayor DeBaun wanted to congratulate all three for their work, not only in the business, but in the community as well. Mr. Finkel thanked the Mayor for his kind words.
